OpenTable Announces 2010 Diners' Choice Awards for Restaurants That Are Most Fit for Foodies

Top 50 List Honors Restaurants Creating Outstanding Cuisine Throughout the Country

SAN FRANCISCO, Sep 27, 2010 (GlobeNewswire via COMTEX News Network) -- OpenTable, Inc. (Nasdaq:OPEN) (www.opentable.com), a leading provider of free, real-time online restaurant reservations for diners and reservation and guest management solutions for restaurants, today announced the winners of its 2010 Diners' Choice Awards for restaurants that are most Fit for Foodies. While this year's list features 22 restaurants that earned the Fit for Foodies distinction in 2009, it also recognizes 28 new ones at which to enjoy outstanding cuisine. The list of winners is derived from more than 7 million reviews submitted by OpenTable diners for more than 12,000 restaurants in all 50 states and the District of Columbia.

"This is one of my favorite Diners' Choice Award lists of the year as it's fun to see which restaurants our diners recommend to others for whom dining out is a true passion," said Caroline Potter, dining expert, OpenTable. "In many major cities, it provides great suggestions for those who are looking to push the boundaries and try something new."

Based on feedback collected from OpenTable diners between September 2009 and August 2010, the following 50 restaurants, listed in alphabetical order, received the highest scores from OpenTable diners, indicating that they were considered among the restaurants most Fit for Foodies.
