OpenTable Diners Reveal Their Top Fifty Italian Restaurants Across the U.S.

Results Show Great Italian Cuisine Can be Found Nationwide

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct 18, 2010 (GlobeNewswire via COMTEX News Network) -- OpenTable, Inc. (Nasdaq:OPEN) (www.OpenTable.com), a leading provider of free, real-time online restaurant reservations for diners and reservation and guest management solutions for restaurants, today announced the winners of its 2010 Diners' Choice Awards for Best Italian Cuisine. In time for National Italian American Heritage Month, this list of the best of the best spans 21 states and the District of Columbia, proving that no matter where you are in America, you aren't far from fabulous Italian dining.

"Italian is a comfort food for many Americans, topping the list of choices on almost any night out," said Caroline Potter, OpenTable's Chief Dining Officer. "This year's Diners' Choice Awards for Best Italian restaurants showcase a variety of styles and dining experiences, from the neighborhood trattoria to the full-blown white tablecloth reception. Fans of Italian cuisine are sure to find some treasures on the list."

The list of winners is derived from more than 7 million reviews submitted by OpenTable diners for more than 12,000 restaurants in all 50 states and the District of Columbia. Based on feedback collected from OpenTable diners between October 2009 and September 2010, the following 50 restaurants, listed in alphabetical order, received the highest scores from OpenTable diners, indicating that they were considered among the best restaurants for Italian food.
