OpenTable Announces Winners of 2010 Diners' Choice Awards for Best Outdoor Dining

California and Florida Lead the Pack for the Second Year in a Row

SAN FRANCISCO, April 30, 2010 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- With spring in full bloom and summer just around the corner, OpenTable, Inc. (Nasdaq:OPEN) (www.opentable.com), a leading provider of free online reservations for diners and guest management systems for restaurants, today announced the national winners of its second annual Diners' Choice awards for Best Outdoor Dining. The list of winning restaurants is derived from four million reviews submitted by OpenTable diners for more than 11,000 restaurants in all 50 states and the District of Columbia.

"No one is happier than local diners when restaurants re-open their patios and tables start to show up on sidewalks. It's a sure sign that spring has sprung and that a new season of fresh ingredients is upon us," said Caroline Potter, Chief Dining Officer, OpenTable. "Sitting outdoors allows you to take in the atmosphere and appreciate the lovely weather. Whether it's a chic city street or an intimate garden setting, dining outside lets you connect with your surroundings, including passers-by, while you're enjoying a delicious meal."

Based on feedback collected from OpenTable diners between March 2009 and March 2010, the following 50 restaurants, listed in alphabetical order, received the highest scores from OpenTable diners, indicating that they were considered among the top choices for Outdoor Dining restaurants.
