OpenTable Announces 2010 "Good for Groups" Diners' Choice Awards

Top 50 Winners' List Recognizes Restaurants Where Large Parties Will be Well Served This Holiday Season

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11, 2010 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- 'Tis the Season to celebrate with friends and family, so OpenTable, Inc. (Nasdaq:OPEN), a leading provider of free, real-time online restaurant reservations for diners and reservation and guest management solutions for restaurants, today announced the 50 winners of its 2010 Diners' Choice Awards for restaurants that are Good for Groups. The list features a variety of restaurants throughout the U.S. which OpenTable diners have ranked as favorites for when dining in large parties.

"More and more, celebrating life's happiest occasions, big and small, happens at restaurants," said Caroline Potter, Chief Dining Officer at OpenTable. "The bigger the celebration, the more important it is to find the right restaurant, and this list makes it easy to do just that. Serving up all types of delicious dishes, including family-style Italian suppers and authentic Mexican specialties to hearty barbecue favorites and juicy steaks, the Good for Groups winners guarantee your group will have a great time and a great meal."

The list of winners is derived from more than 7 million reviews submitted by OpenTable diners for more than 12,000 restaurants in all 50 states and the District of Columbia. Based on feedback collected from OpenTable diners between November 2009 and October 2010, the following 50 restaurants, listed in alphabetical order, received the highest scores from OpenTable diners, indicating that they were considered among the best restaurants for Group Dining.
