OpenTable Announces 2010 Diners' Choice Awards for Most Romantic Restaurants in America

From Intimate Spaces to Showcase Places, Diners Choose Variety for Romance

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan 28, 2010 (GlobeNewswire via COMTEX News Network) -- As couples across the country begin to plan for Valentine's Day, OpenTable, Inc. (Nasdaq:OPEN) (www.opentable.com), a leading provider of free, real-time online restaurant reservations for diners and reservation and guest management solutions for restaurants, today announced the 50 winners of its 2010 Diners' Choice Awards for Most Romantic restaurants in America. The list of winners is derived from nearly four million reviews submitted by OpenTable diners for over 10,000 restaurants in all 50 states and the District of Columbia.

"OpenTable diners have an appetite for romance, especially as Valentine's Day approaches," said Caroline Potter, Chief Dining Officer, OpenTable. "The scope of this list illustrates that there isn't a single definition of what makes a restaurant a romantic one. Romance can be enjoying inspiring views, sharing food, or flirting with your date over a juicy ribeye."

Based on feedback collected from OpenTable diners between January 2009 and December 2009, the following 50 restaurants, listed in alphabetical order, received the highest scores from OpenTable diners, indicating that they were considered among the most romantic.
