OpenTable Announces Winners of 2010 Diners' Choice Awards for Restaurants That are the Best Late Night Finds

Diners Share the Tips on Where to Eat Well Into the Wee Hours of the Evening

SAN FRANCISCO, May 28, 2010 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- With hot summer nights just around the corner, OpenTable, Inc. (Nasdaq:OPEN) (www.opentable.com), a leading provider of free online reservations for diners and guest management systems for restaurants, today announced the national winners of its second annual Diners' Choice awards for restaurants its diners deemed the best Late Night Finds. The list of winning restaurants is derived from more than five million reviews submitted by OpenTable diners for more than 11,000 restaurants in all 50 states and the District of Columbia.

"Whether you're hungry for terrific food or a happening scene, these restaurants are serving up both delicious dishes and fun well into the night," said Caroline Potter, Chief Dining Officer, OpenTable. "Even in major cities, not every restaurant is open as late as you might like it to be. This list makes it easy to find delicious food at almost any hour."

Based on feedback collected from OpenTable diners between April 2009 and April 2010, the following 50 restaurants, listed in alphabetical order, received the highest scores from OpenTable diners, indicating that they were considered among the top choices for Late Night Find restaurants.
