OpenTable analyzed more than 4 million reviews from last year to build its list, which includes 50 restaurants from coast to coast. Restaurants receiving high marks in romance ranged from steakhouses to fondue restaurants to eateries in popular vacation spots like Hawaii and Las Vegas.

"The scope of this list illustrates that there isn't a single definition of what makes a restaurant a romantic one," said Caroline Potter, OpenTable's chief dining officer. "Romance can be enjoying inspiring views, sharing food, or flirting with your date over a juicy rib-eye."
